AMENDED
ORDER

This matter having come before the Court by motions filed by the above-named Plaintiff, Carrie M Leo, pro se, supported by affidavits of Carrie M Leo sworn on May 31, 2018, and June 5, 2018, together with supporting letters and documentation, requesting an order of affirmative injunctive relief requiring Defendant Tyler C. Thomas to return certain exotic animals to the Plaintiff's possession, and by separate motion seeks an affirmative injunction ordering the return to her possession of exotic animals in the possession of the Defendant, Tyler C. Thomas; and Defendant Tyler C. Thomas, by and through his attorneys, Young Law Office, PLLC, Michael F. Young, Esq., of counsel, having opposed the motions in open Court; and

At the Court appearance on August 13, 2018 and during the conference call on April 24, 2019, Plaintiff, Carrie M Leo, having appeared pro se, and Defendant Tyler C Thomas having appeared by and through his attorney, Michael F. Young, Esq.;

And the matter having duly come on to be heard before this Court;

NOW, upon due consideration of the facts and circumstances presented on this motion upon oral argument and upon the filed documents, and upon due deliberation by the Court; it is hereby ORDERED that the Defendant, Tyler C. Thomas, shall return the "badger", the "fisher", and the "red-type ranch fox", now in his possession to the possession of the Plaintiff, Carrie M Leo, if the animals are alive, on or before June 1, 2019. or at a later date if they come into his possession after June 1, 2019

ENTER,
